

Join us for this one day event celebrating America's Founding River!

On July 11, 2009, river enthusiasts from across the Commonwealth will cover small sections of the James River such that, taken in concert, the entire length of the James River – all 340-miles – will be traversed in one day.

Registration is easy...

Visit www.runoffrundown.org

Research the River map to select your section.

Complete the form to register and solicit sponsors for your efforts.

Join the many who will be celebrating the James River on Saturday,
July 11.

Additional information is available at www.jamesriverassociation.org and on the JRA Facebook page.