In The News

Abnormally wet summer will challenge latest gains in Chesapeake's health

(Bay Journal)

Summer ended much as it began across the Chesapeake Bay watershed, drenched in rain that swelled rivers and streams. The abnormal run of chronically wet weather that continued into late September posed further challenges for maintaining recent gains in the Bay's health.

Virginia Waterways Cleanup Event

(September 1-November 7, 2018)

Multiple locations across Virginia. There are more than 70 cleanup opportunities scheduled thus far. Help clean local waterways and collect data about trash & litter in the waterway. Consider hosting a site or volunteer to help with a cleanup. This statewide event is part of the Ocean Conservancy's International Coastal Cleanup.

About the Virginia Waterways Cleanup

- * This statewide event is part of the Ocean Conservancy's International Coastal Cleanup!
- * This annual statewide event not only cleans our waterways, it also collects valuable data about trash & litter in our waterways
- * More than 104,000 Virginians have volunteered in Virginia since 1995
- * It is hands-on stewardship of our water resources
- * You CAN make a difference! Volunteer, lead a cleanup, or help support this important statewide effort by contributing to CVW.

Join Clean Virginia Waterways for the 24th Virginia Waterways Cleanup. This annual event is an affiliate of the global International Coastal Cleanup. Local community groups will be cleaning up local parks, streams and rivers throughout the state. Consider hosting your own site or volunteer at someone else's!"
